

Great Ohio Flood of 1913

Columbus, Broad Street

Ohio Flood, 1913

Chillicothe – Ross County

Columbus – Franklin County

Columbus Fire Department

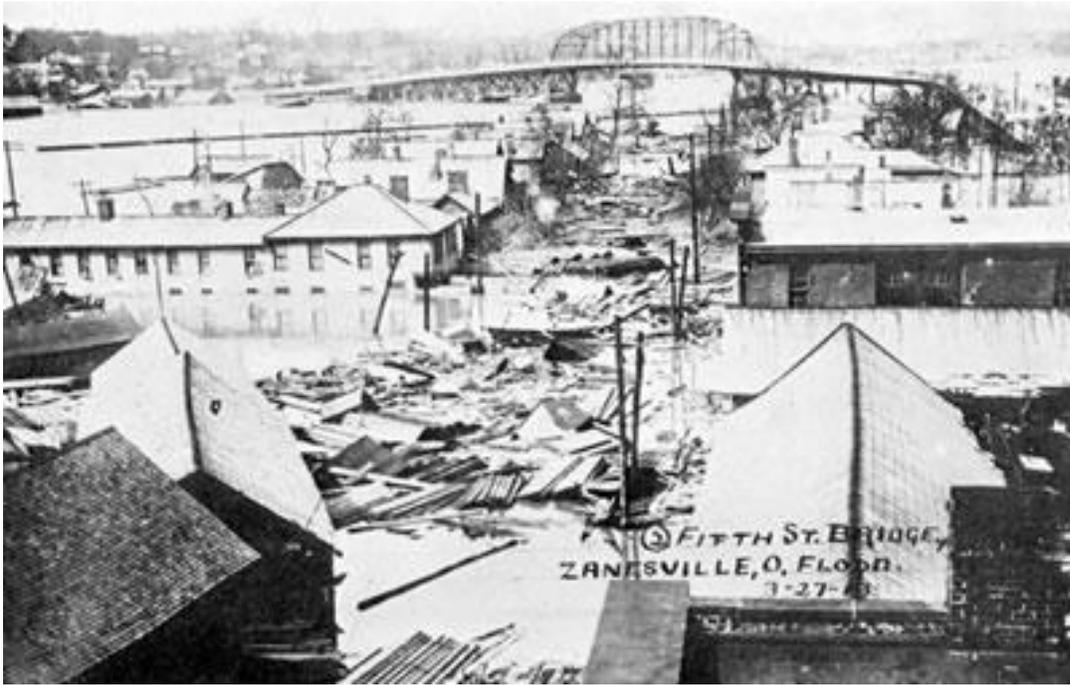

Destroyed Houses in Dayton – Montgomery County

Dayton Public Library – Montgomery County

Portsmouth – Scioto County

Zanesville – Muskingum County

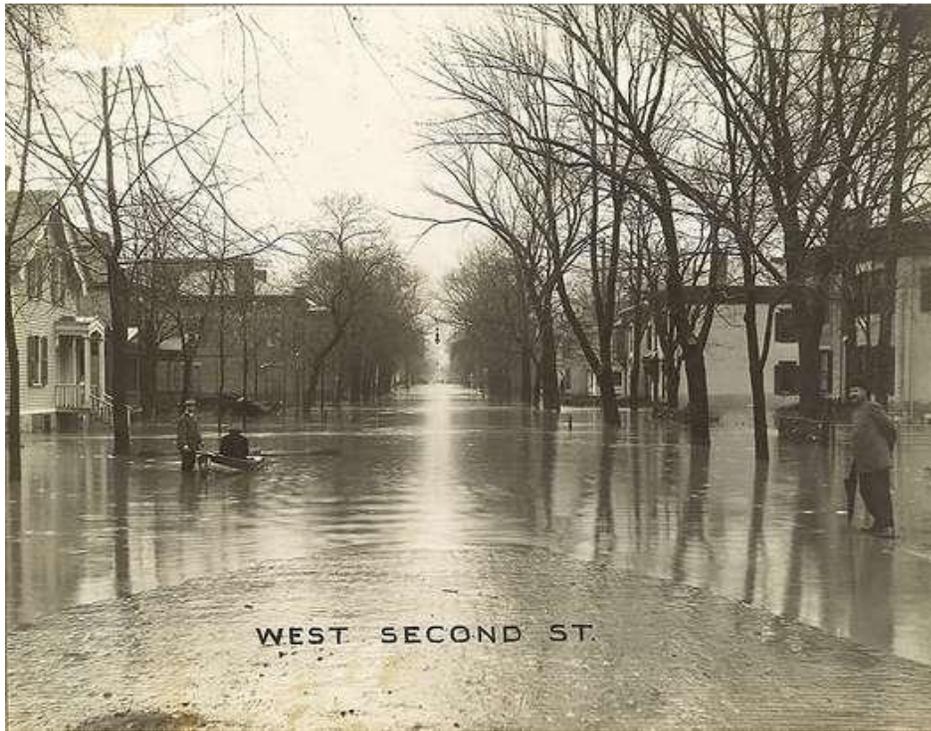

Zanesville – Muskingum County

The Great Flood of 1913

Photos from the Ross County Historical Society

http://www.portclintonnews herald.com/apps/pbcs.dll/article?AID=2013303160003&nclick_check=1

COR. FOURTH AND EWING

EAST MAIN ST. FROM ROSE ST.

This image was taken after the Flood of 1913 at 204 E. Main St. at Hickory Street in Chillicothe.

Flood of 1913 in Chillicothe —Hickory Street at Fourth Street

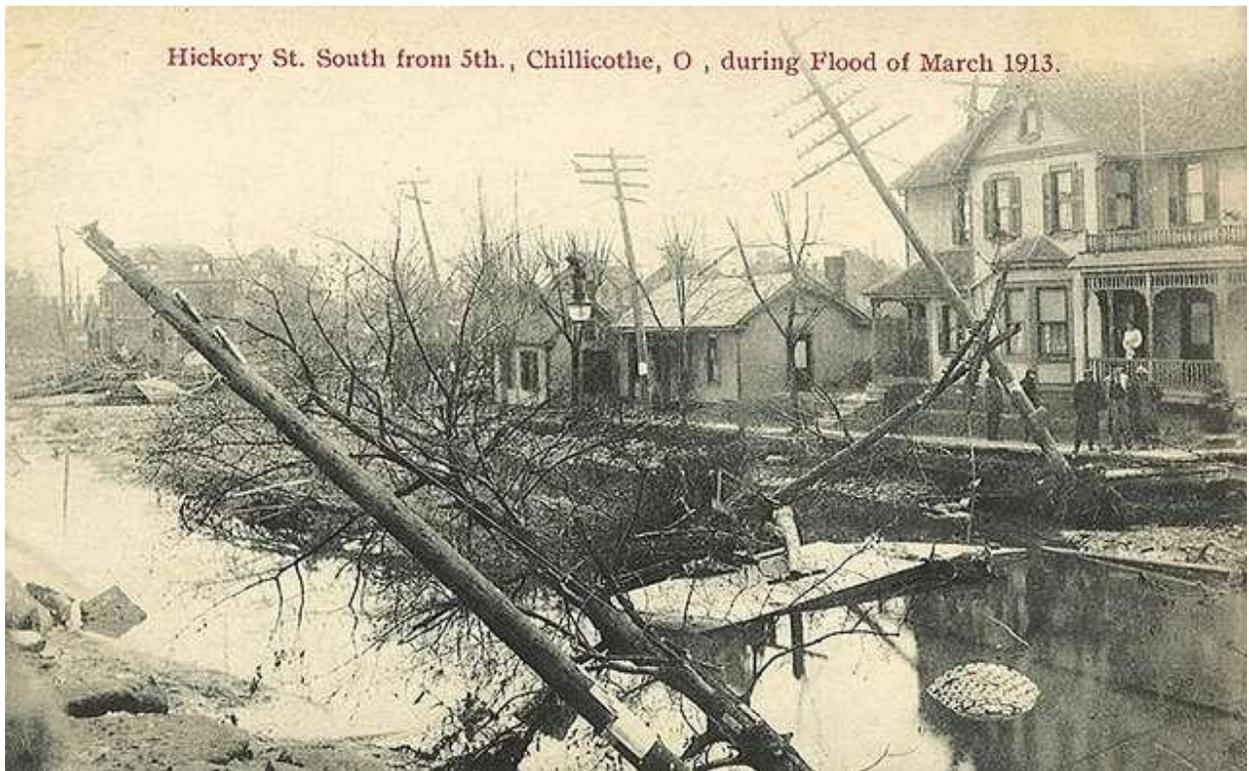

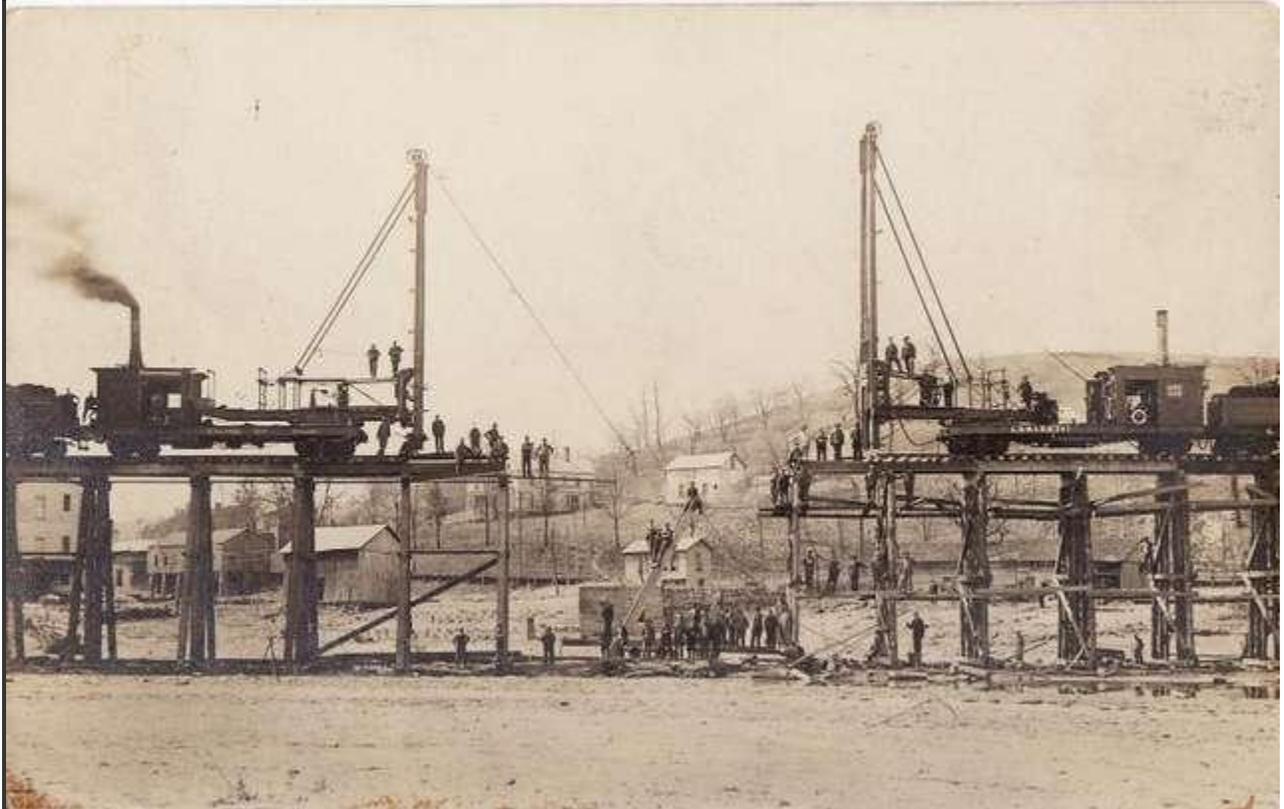

Hickory looking South from 4th. St., Chillicothe, O., during Flood of March 1913.

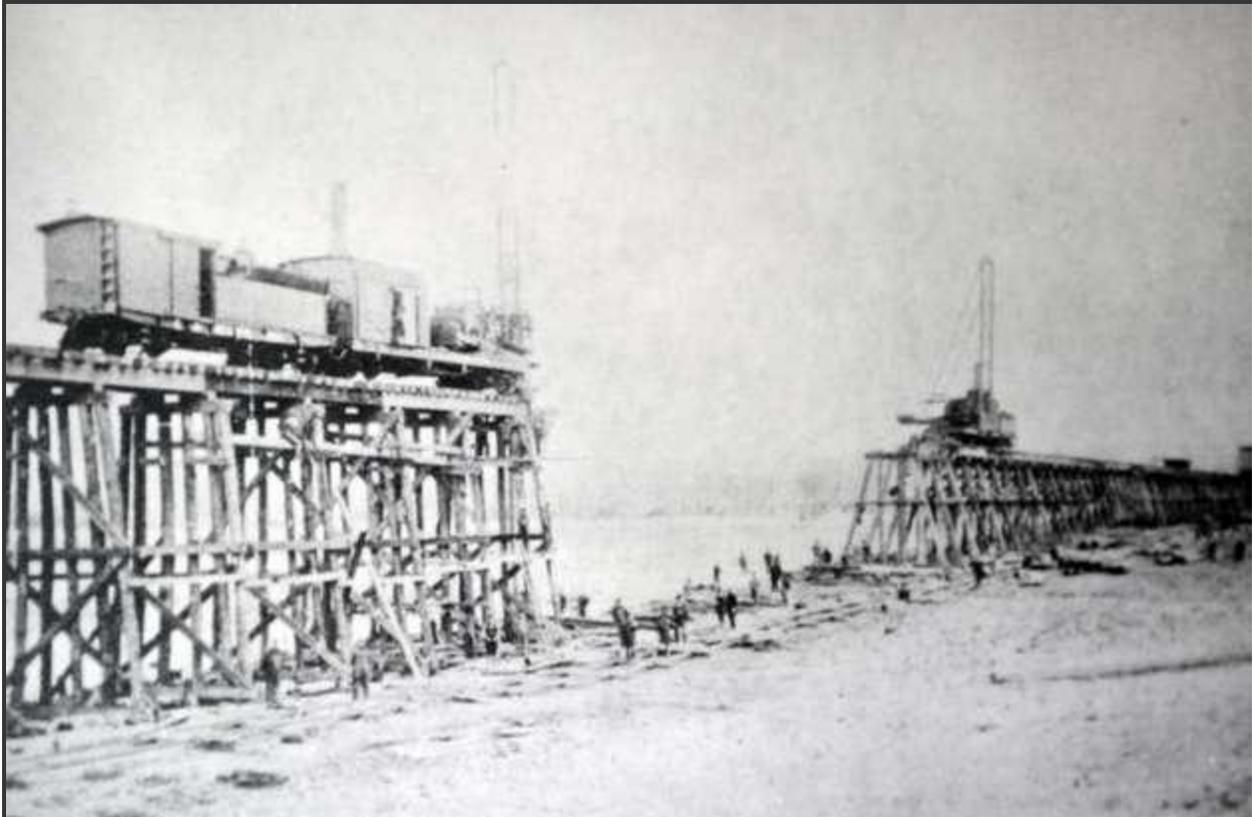

Hickory St. South from 5th., Chillicothe, O., during Flood of March 1913.

This image of damage to a rail bridge in Coshocton is part of the exhibit "Images from the Flood of 1913" at the Johnson-Humrickhouse Museum.

Rail bridge in Coshocton area that was damaged by the flood.

Flood of 1913 in Chillicothe — Pump House

Flood of 1913 in Chillicothe — Sugar Street

Flood of 1913 in Chillicothe —Commemorative postcard featuring Silas Pyles as a "Flood Hero." Pyles was a bartender that saved 25 lives during the flood before losing his own life.